

WHY THE FUTURE OF ISRAEL IS THE TWO-STATE SOLUTION:

A Conversation with Kadima Member of the Knesset Yoel Hasson

Yoel Hasson is a member of the 18th Knesset and recently concluded serving as Chair of the prestigious State Control Committee. As a member of the 17th Knesset, Hasson had the important roles of Kadima party Whip and Chairman of the Coalition. Hasson is considered a rising star in Israeli politics, moving up from seat 29 on the Kadima party list to seat 11 in the last election. Hasson is currently the second youngest member of the Knesset.

Prior to serving as an elected official, Hasson was an advisor to Prime Minister Ariel Sharon and was part of his political staff. He also headed the Public Affairs Department at the Prime Minister's office.
