

Adath Jeshurun Congregation Synaplex Shabbat

April 23-24, 2010

101 Ways to Connect at Adath With a Night of 101 Dinners Plus Guest Scholar Rabbi Steven Greenberg

Friday Evening, April 23

- 6:00 PM Kabbalat Shabbat Service
- 7:00 PM Congregational Dinner with Rabbi Steven Greenberg: Gays in the Garden: Searching for a Place in Our People's Story
RSVP below by April 16
- 101 Shabbat Dinners throughout the Adath Neighborhood

Saturday Morning, April 24

- Hachnasat Orchim: Constructing the Welcoming Tent
D'var Torah by Rabbi Steven Greenberg
- Wrestling with God and Man: Why My Macalester Students Loved Steven Greenberg's Book with Rabbi Barry Cytron
- Inside and Outside: Feeling Included at Adath with Barbara Rudnick of JFCS
- Inside and Outside: What's at Adath to Do? with Abby Kirschner and panel of Adath members
- What Is Chadashot Anyway? Understanding Adath-Speak in the Synaplex Coffee House with Starbucks coffee and snacks

Plus:

- Gimel Family Service! Music, spirit and fun for families with Rabbi Sadoff, Laurie Herstig and Julie Dean
- Informal Torah Discussion with Steve Lear

Learn after Lunch Saturday Afternoon

Wrestling with Leviticus: Four Rationales for the Biblical Prohibition with Rabbi Steven Greenberg

Rabbi Steven Greenberg is Director of the CLAL Diversity Project and a Senior Teaching Fellow at CLAL (National Jewish Center for Learning and Leadership).

An award-winning author of Wrestling with God and Men: Homosexuality in the Jewish Tradition, teacher and religious iconoclast, he has broken boundaries and led the fight to make Orthodox Judaism more open and inclusive of homosexual members. He appeared in Trembling Before God, a groundbreaking documentary about gay and lesbian Orthodox Jews.

This Synaplex Shabbat is co-sponsored with the Adath Jeshurun Keruv (drawing close) Committee. It is made possible through the generous support of the Burton and Marty Abramson Fund and Ken and Sally Appelbaum Keruv Fund of the Adath Jeshurun Foundation, the Jewish Community Relations Council of Minnesota and the Dakotas, and other individuals and funds.

Reserve Today! Space is Limited. Reservations for the Congregational Shabbat Dinner must be received by April 16, 2010.

Name: _____

Phone #: _____ E-mail Address: _____

Cost: $13.00 per person Number Attending: _____ Total Enclosed: $ _____
This will be a salmon dinner.

Mail with check to: Synaplex Shabbat Dinner, Adath Jeshurun Congregation,
10500 Hillside Lane West, Minnetonka, MN 55305

