

SUKKOT AND SIMCHAT TORAH SCAVENGER HUNT AND ADVENTURE

We had so much fun at our online Yom Kippur Scavenger Hunt, so we created an at-home version for you for Sukkot and Simchat Torah. During Sukkot, we celebrate nature. At the end of Sukkot on Simchat Torah, we celebrate the Torah. Here are some ideas, but you can also create your own Sukkot and Simchat Torah fun!

Find three different colored leaves or a picture of a leaf.

Listen to a Sukkah song or a song about the Simchat Torah. Grownup Hint: we added some links to songs and videos in the "Holy Days at Home Guide".

Taste two new fruits.

Make a model sukkah in your house out of an old shoe box and other found items.

Find a book about Sukkot or Simchat Torah Bonus: Have someone read you the story. Grownup hint: If you don't have one in your house, there are many online.

In honor of our Jewish ancestors who we call the Ushpizin, ask a grownup to tell a story or show you a picture of one of your ancestors.

If you have a toy Torah, make up a special dance with it and show your family.

Find three coins to donate to tzedakah.

Take a picture of you with anything relating to Sukkot or Simchat Torah and ask your grownup to email it to: jeniferr@adath.net.
