WHAT WE DO

Engaging, Enriching & Empowering Conservative Jewish Women

Women's League for Conservative Judaism is the network for all women who support our mission of enhancing Jewish knowledge, engaging in Jewish life, expanding communal involvement, and supporting klal Yisrael.

We engage in:

- community service projects
- educational programs
- programs for all interests
- crafts
- personal enrichment
- social gatherings

OUR MISSION

The mission of Women's League for Conservative Judaism is to strengthen and unite synagogue women's groups, their members, and individual members, support them in mutual efforts to understand and perpetuate Conservative/Masorti Judaism in the home, synagogue and community, and reinforce their bonds with Israel and with Jews worldwide. Women's League accepts the Jerusalem Program, which is the platform of the World Zionist Organization.

TORAH FUND

The Torah Fund campaign began in 1942 as a scholarship fund. In 1963, it merged with the Mathilde Schechter Residence Hall campaign that provided housing for undergraduate students.

Your support goes toward scholarships for the Jewish Theological Seminary, Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies, Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies, Seminario Rabinico Latinoamericano, and Zacharias Frankel College.

The 5779 pin envelopes the Hebrew word for "future" (atid) and represents our wish for a distinctly Jewish future, for ourselves as individuals, our families, and our communities.

OUR HISTORY

The Adath women's group had a number of name changes: the Sisters of Peace (1882), Ladies Aid Society (1890's), the Ladies Auxiliary (1900), the Women's League (1924) to Women of Adath (2018). When Mathilde Schechter organized the National Women's League in 1918, the Adath women became one of the four founding member groups. In those early years, they cooked meals, helped to furnish and beautify the synagogue, raised money, and gave staunch financial aid for numerous expenses.

Answering the challenge of relevance for today's Conservative Jewish woman, as well as spreading the geographic representation of its leadership, developing an educated Jewish laity, and appealing to younger women are all part of the challenge Women's League faces. Women's League is as dedicated as it was in 1918 to creating a vibrant American Jewish community, one which nurtures the family and community with the values of Jewish tradition.
